Teacher's Institute.

The Powell County Teachers' Institute will be held at Stanton last week with Prof. and Mrs. R. S. Eubank, of the Southern School Journal as Instructors. The Department of Education has promised to send some good speaker to address the Institute on Thursday. T. J. Coates, Rural School Supervisor will likely be the speaker. Mrs. Bohannon, Superintendent, has designated this day as "Parents', Teachers' and Trustees' Day". Everyone interested in the cause of better education and better schools, is urged by Mrs. Bohannon to attend on that day.

City School Opens.

School opened Monday with an unusually large attendance, and the prospect for a good school this year is manifest. This is encouraging, and the patrons should lend a helping hand to the teachers. The majority of disturbances in all schools occur on account of the parents interfering with the proper disciplining of their children. We hope to have none of this this year. There has been no complaints of this kind in our schools for some time, and we hope it will be some time to come again before we learn of another case.

Corn Going Up.

Corn which was plentiful not many weeks ago at $2.50 per barrel has steadily climbed up until it is now $5.00 per barrel and scarce at this price. While there is yet plenty of old corn in this county, the short crops in the bluegrass counties have forced the prices up there, and this has stimulated the advance in this county.

E. B. McGlone is in Frankfort on a business mission.

Bridge Needing Repair.

The floor on the Waltersville bridge and on the approaches on both sides of this bridge is worn out and will soon have to be repaired. We learn the city is trying to get the county to repair this bridge. The true status of the case is this: The bridge is in the city limits, was built by the town and the town can be held responsible for any injury accruing to any individual or stock in crossing it. The only way the city can get around repairing this bridge is to strike out the territory covered by this bridge and approaches from its boundary line. It is an easy matter to do this at any regular meeting of the Council, and it should be done. This territory was only incorporated in the city limits for the purpose of building this bridge. It has served its purpose, now let the city unload it on the county.

Trial of the Last Road Case.

In the case of exceptions filed by Edwin Rose against the county in the matter of the new road between this city and Stanton, tried out in the County Court Monday, the damages were raised from $350 to $500. This brings the total amount of damages for the new road up to $800. This upon the face of it, seems to be a light damage, but when it is understood that so many made concessions in the matter of fencing and gave the right-of-way straight out, it may be considered a little high, but not enough, it is thought, to block the opening of this all important road.

The new Christian church at Union Hall will be dedicated the Fourth Sunday in this month. Every body is invited to come and bring a well-filled basket.

Fifty Years Ago.

The following information is obtained from Col. R. R. Perry: "Fifty years ago today on the night of the thirtieth of August, 1863, there was a frost that killed all growing vegetation throughout Central Kentucky. I was in the Federal army, Ninth Kentucky Cavalry. We started on a march from Frankfort, going South. Before day, on the morning of the thirtieth, I noticed that the ground was white. The thirty-first was a bright sunny day and before light all of the tobacco, corn and other growing vegetation were wilted.

"Fifty-nine years ago, 1854, known as the dry year, there was no rain during the growing season after the first of July. Practically no corn was raised, the gardens all dried up and destitution in Kentucky the winter following, and large numbers of stock died from starvation."—Winchester Sun.

Visits Home of Forefathers.

Mrs. Hattie Gibson and her daughter, Miss Elva, have recently been visiting Mrs. Sudie Ringo and family. They are nieces of Mrs. Ringo. The visit was a very pleasant one as City City was the home of their grandfather; Judge John French, one of the old pioneers of this country, and was the builder of the Red River Iron Works, and, also, the foreman of same for many years. Mr. Wilder, the father of Mrs. Gibson, was chief mill cutter under Judge French. This was Mrs. Gibson's first visit to this place, and she said it was a real pleasure to view the old home of her grandfather and father, and drink from the spring at the old oak from which her grandfather and family and father had drunk for many years long ago. Their visit was greatly appreciated by the Ringo family.

Passes Away in Carter County.

Mrs. Parthena McGlone, aged 68 years, died at her home in Carter county last week after a brief illness of pneumonia. She is survived by eleven living children, five girls and six boys. Mr. E. B. McGlone, of this city is a son of the deceased and was at her bedside when she passed away.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our many friends for their kind help during the sickness of our beloved companion and mother.

Melvin Gravett and children.

George Folkner, of Shade, was in the city Monday on business.

I, or one of my deputies will be at the following places the time mentioned for the purpose of collecting tax:

At Hardwick's Creek and Roger's Chapel, Sept. 5,

At Virden and Nada, Sept. 12,

STANTON NEWS.

Mrs. Fred Blackburn's spending a fortnight at Torrent to escape the hay fever at this time of the year.

The little girl of Robert Baker's fell from a tree and severely hurt herself one day last week. She is doing well.

Mrs. Mary Jackson is visiting her brothers and relatives and the old home place at Owingsville in Bath county.

Mrs. Bettie Hardwick and Miss Kate Reed, who has been visiting her for several days, have gone to Oil Springs to try the water there.

Mrs. Henry Morris sold a sow and nine shotes that weighed about seventy-five pounds apiece for $71 to a Mr. Norton, of Winchester.

Miss Mabel Ewen is visiting friends in Winchester and from there will go to London, Ky., to teach in the High School where she taught last year.

Rev. Mr. Kimmelschue, of Xenia, Ohio, will commence a revival meeting at the Presbyterian church Sunday. We hope they will have a splendid meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lowe and children, of Missouri, are visiting at Mr. John Jackson's and other friends and relatives in the county. Mr. Lowe is the grandson of M. Jackson.

Mrs. Win. Neal has been at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Joe Hon, near Lowland for several days. Mrs. Doc Dehart another sister was called there Friday morning expecting her death any minute.

Mrs. Hardin Adams and son and her mother, Mrs. Eversole, of Sunflower, Miss., arrived Tuesday to visit at the home of Mrs. Hardin Adams' brother, E. H. Fuller, our genial and enterprising banker.

Miss Dora Hatton, who has been sick with tuberculosis trouble for several months, died Friday night and was buried on Saturday at Hatton Creek graveyard. Her death is the result of measles taken when we had the epidemic here.

The First Ohio Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church will meet next Tuesday and Wednesday at the Presbyterian Church in our town. All members are urged to attend these sessions. It is expected that there will be some fine speakers present.

The horse which Miss Grace Maxwell was driving ran away and in crossing a ditch threw her out and running into a tree the horse broke loose from the buggy and went back to the barn of Mr. Daniel. Miss Maxwell was not seriously hurt and will soon be all right.

Mrs. Hon, the widow of Joe Hon, and whose sickness has been spoken of above, died Friday afternoon and was buried at the home graveyard on Saturday. There were ten brothers and sisters and she is survived by six. All of them were at the funeral excepting one. She was seventy-six years of age. Mrs.

Doc Dehart and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Neal of this place attended the funeral.

The contest in the Christian Endeavor Society between the Crowe and Campbell side came to a close Sunday night. A rousing meeting closed the contest in which nearly every member was present and took part. The Campbell side won the contest and that means that the Crowe side must give a banquet to the winners. We trust that those who entered this contest will continue to keep up their attendance and to take part in the regular meetings. The contest will be a failure if you allow yourself to fall back in the old rut. Do your part to keep up the interest and to make the society a live wire in the town and to enlist the young people in active service for God.

A. L. George spoke to a very large crowd in the railroad company's lot where Mr. Burgher lives. His lecture was intensely interesting to those who heard him and he gave some excellent advice to young men about the carrying of pistols and drinking of whiskey and showed how they will get them into trouble. Two thirds of the convicts in all the penitentiaries of our country are there because of whiskey and pistols. Most of the crime committed in Powell county comes from the same source. As a rule the ones who drink whiskey can least afford it and they are the ones who have the least in this world's goods. A man will spend a dollar for a quart of whiskey when his family is suffering for the very necessities of life. There isn't a man in Stanton that buys whiskey but what that money is needed in the home. The reason why we have so many bums, loafers and shiftless men in our county is because they spend nearly every thing they make for whiskey. To everyone who uses whiskey it degrades their character and manhood, they lose the respect of the people when they go staggering up or down our streets using such vile language, and acting so unbecomingly a gentleman.

We desire to call attention to the trustees of the several school districts that many of the scholars are not attending school. As we have a compulsory school law in which each scholar is required to attend between the ages of seven and fourteen we hope that the trustees will see that this law is enforced in their district. We believe in this law because it means a better Kentucky when illiteracy will be done away with in the coming generations and Kentucky will take her place in the front rank of states in education. We hope that the teachers will urge their trustees to have all the scholars in the district to attend. Let there be co-operation on the part of everyone to wipe out the stain of illiteracy that rests on Kentucky. A law is no account unless it is enforced and this law deserves to be enforced to the limit. Many of the scholars are kept out for no excuse whatever. If a boy or girl does not want to go to school the parents make no effort to have them go in many cases but allow them to do as they please. If every boy and girl in Kentucky were compelled to go to school till they were fourteen years of age there would soon be less vote buyers and sellers, less crime and fewer criminals in our penitentiaries and a higher standard of morals.

At Stanton Court Monday the writer heard one of the best posted and closest observing citizens of the county say Powell county was in far better condition both socially and financially before the railroad was built into our midst than it has since ever been and he was quickly corroborated by every one present who knew the county at that time. The Times as well as every observing citizen of the county who can remember that far back, knows this to be true. The restless dissatisfied disposition of so many of our now best citizens, was then a stranger. All were satisfied with their county and were striving to make it better, instead of, as it is now, striving to make money and go to some other county and make it better. We must seek contentment in our native county, and devote our energies to make it a fit habitation for our children. Let us strive to leave our county an inheritance as well as our children. We should have a love for the land that gave us birth, as well as a love for those to whom we give birth. Every move we make, excites our nerves to make another. Let us, therefore, in every instance, strive to improve existing conditions and better adapt ourselves to them, and not strive to follow in the wake of the many other persons of our county who have moved to other counties, after making a nice little fortune here. They have gone there to get the conveniences of life that we, remaining citizens must secure for ourselves, or many more of our citizens will continue to leave us as the many have done in the past to get these advantages of life that we naturally have not. Let us wake up.

There are a class of people in this country that has all along said, "give us a tariff and thus enable our manufacturers to get big prices for their products, so that they can give prices for labor." Now that farm products have soared so high of late, many of these same people are now saying cattle and hogs are too high, poor people cannot live at the prices. They forget that high priced farm products, like they claim high-priced manufactured products, will enable the farmers to pay more for their labor because they get more for their products. And we are sure the farmers will come a great deal nearer giving this increase willingly than will the conniving manufacturing concerns.

New Industry for Mountains.

Canned fruit may become the typical product of the Kentucky mountains if a movement set on foot by church people and mountain evangelists and approved by the State Department of Agriculture meets with the success anticipated. Markets are not accessible for the mountain fruits, which grow in abundance and great variety. Consequently, much of it goes to waste, and in times past more of it has been converted into brandy. Next year it is proposed to make a thorough canvass of the mountain country in the interest of the girl's canning clubs. Commissioner Newman said he intends touring portions of Eastern Kentucky this fall after the State Fair, and Mrs. Helen Walcott, who is in charge of the canning club work and has spoken at institutes in that section, probably will go along.

Death of Mrs. Gravett.

Mrs. Polly Gravett, wife of Melvin Gravett, died at her home near Vaughn's Mill, after ten weeks of hard suffering, during which time every thing that loving hands could do was done. Funeral services conducted by Rev. L. F. Mann at Hardwick's Creek Christian church. Burial in the cemetery at that place in the presence of a large number of people.

Deceased was 60 years old and a member of the Christian church. She leaves a husband and eleven children to mourn her loss. How can we express the loss and sorrow of the husband walking alone or of those children who loved her so dearly. Their devotion to their mother was something beautiful to see.

Mrs. Gravett was a Christian hearted woman in sickness or affliction of any kind. She was always ready to help in any way she could. A loving and helpful companion and mother.

She also left two sisters who were at her bedside during her sickness. The children left to mourn her loss are: Earnest Gravett, George Gravett, Mrs. Jeff Wright, Mrs. Wm. Wells, and Mrs. Chas. Bush, of Powell county. Mack Gravett and Mrs. Bert Barnett of Clark county. Mrs. John Burgher and Mrs. Joe Shimmessel of Fayette county. Clarence Gavett of Illinois, and John Gravett of Iowa.

The grim Death Chariot halted And stopped at our neighbor's door, And a loving wife and mother Borne away to the distant shore.

Oh, full of duties the life of her Who hath quietly passed away, Telling for those she loved so dear, Filling each busy day.

When our hearts are torn with anguish, Let us in the Lord confide, Keep within our minds this lesson, Jesus Christ for us hath died.

—A Friend.

There seems to be but little interest in the coming election. This is pleasing to all peaceful minds. Later, however, the excitement will grow higher and higher until the result is announced on the day of election.

A. L. George, the Texas convict delivered his lecture here Sunday afternoon to a very large crowd. His talk proved what whiskey and pistol carrying will do for us, and how they get us into trouble whether we do anything or not.

Dog days will end tomorrow, and may we now hope for rain? The forty dog days brought us dry weather like the first day of these days were. They tell us the new moon appearing this week is a wet moon. This is consolation for those who believe in signs, but the writer is one of that class that believes in no signs as it regards rain, but the old Indian sign which has always proven good.

SPOUT SPRING.

W. H. and Henry Wiseman, of Clark county, former Estill county boys, were here last week with relatives.

Pastor I. T. Spencer, of the Methodist church, is conducting a series of meetings with his church at this place.

Marion McKinney will have a public sale of all his household effects Saturday, Sept. 6th, and move to Lexington with his children.

The Sunday School Convention here Sunday was a most pleasant and profitable occasion. The Rev. Judge Mann delivered a fine sermon in the forenoon which was well received by his hearers. At noon a bounteous feast was spread and all were well filled and plenty was left to have fed as many more as were there. Elder Derthick conducted the Sunday school services in the afternoon. Both Bro. Derthick and Judge Mann are favorite ministers with the people here who will gladly give them a congregation any time they may preach in our midst.

Johnny Green Will Fly Again at Chattanooga.

Chattanooga, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—The Chairman of the Grand Army Entertainment Committee, has closed a contract with Johnny Green, famous Cardui birdman and waterfowl, to make three flights in Chattanooga during the G. A. R. Reunion, to be held in Chattanooga Sept. 15th to 20th.

Green is the man who made the record flight in Cardui Flyer No. 1 over Lookout Mountain during the U. C. V. Reunion last May. He was the first man to attempt that dangerous flight, refused by so many other prominent aviators. A feature of his exhibition next month will be a flight in his Cardui Flyer No. 2, equipped with hydroplanes, up the Tennessee River. This will be the first hydroplane flight ever made by any Southern aviator.

Visitors to the G. A. R. Reunion will do well not to miss these flights by the famous aviator, free to all, and should look out for the dollar bills, which he drops among the crowds below, as he goes hurtling through the air.

Farm Drain Tile

Make Your Wet Land Productive.

By the use of drain tile you can turn that low, wet, useless, swampy field into the most productive spot on your farm. Good tile, properly placed, not only carries off surplus water, it admits air to the soil and makes it easy to work. It improves any soil. The increase in the value of the land is many times the cost of the tile. The first year's crop from tiled land pays for it. Any body can do the work successfully. Write for particulars or call on our plant.

ASHAMED!

Lots of people seem proud to have appendicitis or nervous troubles because they think they are fashionable diseases, and are ashamed to be called consumptives because consumption is not fashionable. Feeling this way, they neglect diagnosis and medical care when they first detect the signs of consumption, thinking that, by simple neglect, the disease will disappear of itself. It is well within the truth to say that 5,000 lives are sacrificed annually in the United States through this false pride. The only thing to be ashamed of in having a case of tuberculosis in the family is the neglect of the disease and the consequent death of the sufferer; and such neglect deserves round censure because it will probably involve more than one person. Remember that an early diagnosis of consumption increases the chance of cure a thousand fold.

To Teachers—Why Experiment.

If you needed medical advice, would you consult some young student who had passed an examination in anatomy and hygiene, but who was ignorant of hospital methods, who had never followed a pathological case from diagnosis to convalescence? Would you permit such a novice to experiment upon you? And yet are you willing, as a teacher, to experiment upon the pupils whom you are to guide? Do you know how to systematize your work, have you correct methods of teaching, do you understand child Psychology?

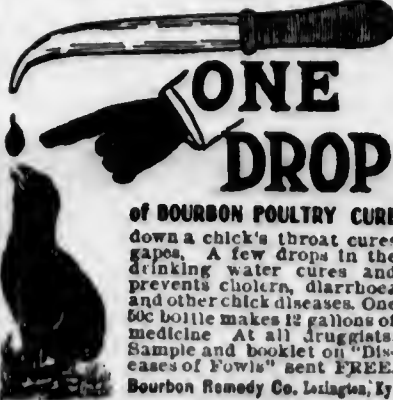

Whatever your status as a teacher, the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School will make you a much better teacher. You will be trained under the best professional talent, you will observe the most up-to-date and approved methods of teaching you will do considerable practice teaching under expert supervision.

In addition to the regular course of instruction, unexcelled opportunities are offered all students to take special subjects, such as home economics, manual training, physical culture, expression, scientific farming and others.

Tuition is free, the charge for board and room is insignificant, the school buildings are splendid, the campus is most beautiful, in fact, all conditions are ideal for the ambitious teacher.

RIGHT HERE IS YOUR CHANCE TO BUY THAT TYPEWRITER!

This is a straight-from-the-Shoulder Typewriter Talk by a Typewriter Man to the Readers of The Clay City Times.

Whether you have had the use of a typewriter or not, you have paid for one many times over. Yes, sir, we mean it; every day you continue using the old, slow method of writing with a pen you are unconsciously paying for a typewriter. The farmer who cuts his grain with a scythe pays with every drop of sweat for a reaper. If you are neglectful of your wearing apparel and expose yourself unnecessarily to the rain and cold you are paying for the very things that would have kept you well and comfortable. Remember this and mark it well: You must pay—pay—for the necessities of this life, whether you use them or not.

THIS IS THE NEW VISIBLE FOX SENT ON FREE TRIAL, Express Paid.

Look at the illustration of our New Fox Visible Typewriter, shown above, and compare it with any other typewriter you have ever seen or used. Here is a really VISIBLE typewriter—note that the printing point is on top in plain sight, and that the type bars rise from where they are lying and strike the platen in full view of the operator, and in a direct line of vision, and that all of what you have written remains in full sight until the paper is removed from the typewriter. Compare this with those old style typewriters, that some firms are still advertising as "visible," but on which the printing point is beneath the typebars, and you have to look down into them—or between them—to see what you have written. Touch a key in the keyboard and you change the color of your writing instantly from black, blue or purple to red. Press the Tabulator Key at the left (in front) for paragraphing, writing the complimentary closing, etc.; also for all kinds of billing. At the right (in front) is our Back Space Key. This moves the carriage backward for making corrections, or putting in punctuation. This key also enables the operator to erase a word of three letters and write one of four in its place. Press the Stencil Key shown at the left (front) for making stencils from which thousands of duplicate letters can be made. Four rows of keys reduce the shifting one-third. The right Shift Key locks automatically for writing in all caps. A positive automatic Line Lock prevents you from writing beyond a predetermined line. The ribbon travels in a "zig-zag" line—not straight across from spool to spool as on others—thus using all of the ribbon and making it last three or four times as long as on other typewriters. The ribbon automatically re-winds itself from one spool to the other without any attention from the operator. Carriages are interchangeable, and run on ball bearing tracks. Platens are removable, so that both a hard and soft platen can be used on the same typewriter. Extremely light touch, "No falling leaf" lighter than the touch of the Fox Typewriter. Choice of Elite, Pica, Condensed Roman, Medium Roman, or Italic Type—we carry more than three thousand special type in stock, of our own manufacture, and can furnish keyboards for any language. The Fox has an easy, almost noiseless action, is very durable, and is sent complete with cleaning outfit and metal cover with hardwood base.

This is the Fox, the typewriter we manufacture—this is the typewriter that we will send to anyone anywhere in the United States on Free Trial, all express charges fully paid—no "red tape"—no delay—no obligation to buy. If purchased after trial you can pay a little down—whatever you can spare—and the balance in small monthly payments.

Reader, in all sincerity we can honestly say this proposition has never been equaled by any other typewriter company, and all we ask is that you write us today—NOW—giving us your name and address so we can send you our outline and write you personally about our typewriter and Free Trial offer.
